Ultimate Destiny Hall of Fame Award Recipient Robert Allen

As a society, we have many well-known programs and facilities to honor individuals who have excelled in sports, music, entertainment, business, etc. Now Ultimate Destiny presents the Ultimate Destiny Hall of Fame Award to honor those individuals in any area of life who are fulfilling their ultimate destiny and especially those who are also helping others manifest theirs.

The Ultimate Destiny Hall of Fame also features programs, products, services and other resources that help individuals, organizations, companies and communities see, believe and achieve more of all they can be, do and have stewardship over. The first example of how we will honor the award recipients on the Ultimate Destiny Hall of Fame Award web sites and in our programs and publications is the page we are building for Robert Allen.

Mr. Robert Allen
Costa Mesa, CA

Dear Bob:

We are pleased to present you with the Ultimate Destiny Hall of Fame Award! Through the quizzes we have been conducting, you are one of the first people nominated as someone who is both manifesting your ultimate destiny and helping others discover their dreams and fulfill their destiny. Congratulations! Through your decades of experience, you know what it takes to succeed in life -- you've seen the transformation that occurs when people learn how to invest in their dreams by believing in their hearts that they deserve a life filled with love, success, and job fulfillment. We now invite you to share your gifts even further by letting us interview you and feature your programs and products in the digital publications and books we are publishing through Ultimate Destiny.

We are about to launch the Ultimate Destiny Success System Library which consists of 14 interactive programs totaling over 1,200 pages. The System is designed to help participants realize more of their potential, fulfill their life purpose and manifest their ultimate destiny. Our inter-active programs help them learn how to: harness their creative mind power; enjoy loving relationships; attain financial freedom; enjoy ultimate health and fitness; raise their level of consciousness: attain spiritual enlightenment; make a difference and leave a legacy.

The Ultimate Destiny Success System includes free coaching, webinars, quizzes, self-assessments, application exercises and featured resources from world-class authors, trainers and providers like you and most of the other individuals being honored with the Ultimate Destiny Hall of Fame Award. The Ultimate Destiny Success System is the first in a series of publications designed to help individuals, organizations, companies, and communities actualize their talents and realize more of their inherent potential. The initial 14 electronic publications will be published as printed books beginning early in 2010.

Then we will begin conducting webinars, teleseminars and live events including some that will feature Ultimate Destiny Hall of Fame Award winners. We invite you to let us interview you as part of our work because of your experience in helping people discover the beauty and power that reside in their spirits when they unlock their true potential. Your answers to a series of eight questions will be featured on our web sites and in our interactive training programs.

In addition, we are compiling the wisdom from you and other Hall of Fame Award recipients for a new program to help Expand the Circle of Success. Through this campaign, we are helping donate 100 million dollars worth of development training materials to and through non-profits over the next 10 years. One of the first steps is publication of a book we are creating to help provide expanded capacities to address the increasing economic and environmental challenges we face. The tentative title of this forthcoming series of books is Solving Our Personal, Community and Global Success Puzzles. The book encompasses Community Economic Development principles and practices of self-help, empowerment and capacity building. It includes a Strategic Marketing SystemTM for establishing an international network of local not-for-profit Community Empowerment Training Resource Centers based on 40 years of successful models.

To further recognize your accomplishments, we have developed a special edition of our Ultimate Destiny Success System that features you in the Hall of Fame Award section. In addition, we are setting up an automatic affiliate position that will earn you a 50% commission on any sales you help us generate. If you have a non-profit of your own, or one you support, we also have developed an Ultimate Fundraising Program. Through it, we are able to donate 50% to 110% of any sales of our products generated by a NPO back to that agency.

We would appreciate the opportunity to interview you to get your answers to a few questions (provided as an attachment) about how you have accomplished so much in your lifetime. By sharing your wisdom and insights through our programs and publications, we can help millions of people fulfill their destinies and potentially introduce thousands of new people to your great programs as well. Thank you for the richness of the opportunities you provide for millions of people around the world to learn from and be blessed by your lifetime of contributions.

Sincerely,

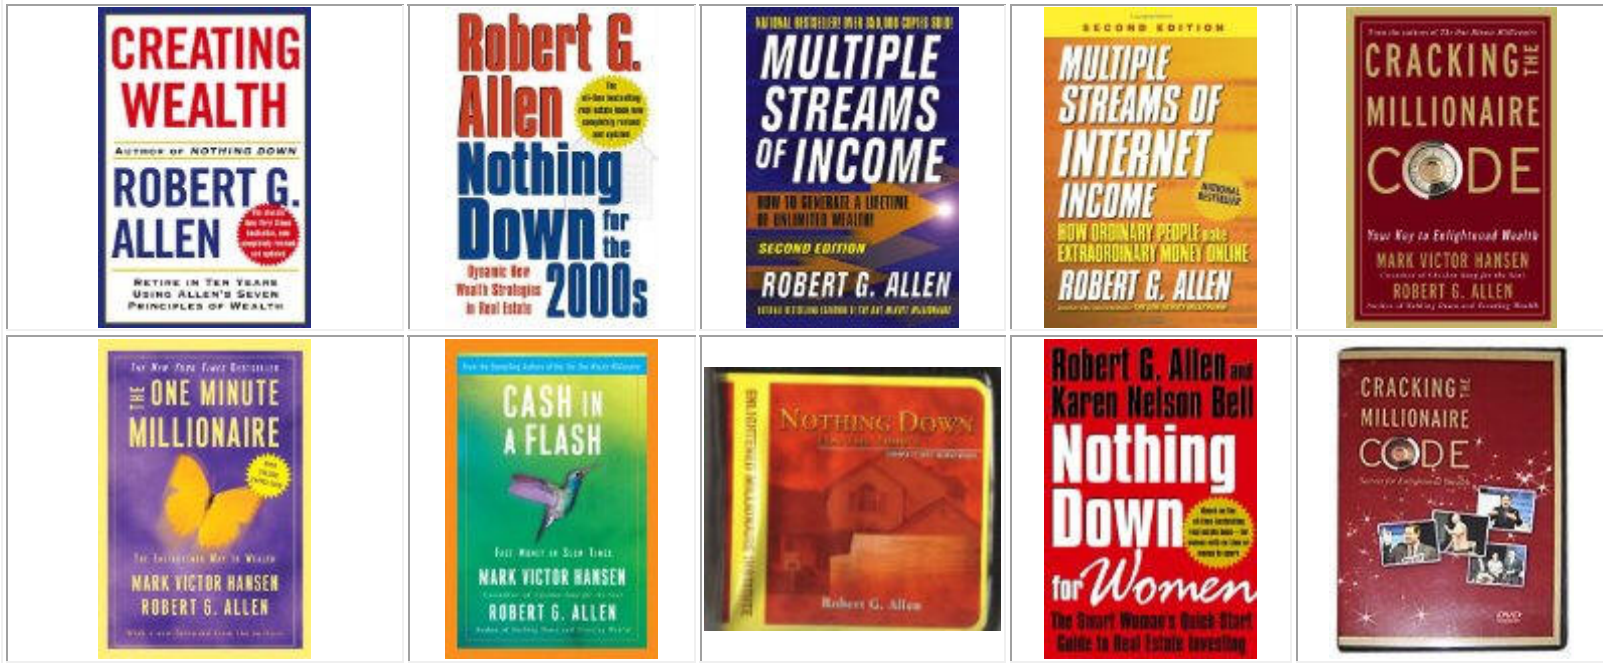

Charles Betterton
